Recce Story Evening

15th June 2024

On this special occasion of Recce Storytelling, unique perspectives will be shared about the South African Special Forces, followed by exciting stories about the life of Charl Naude, a Special Forces Operator and Commander, who had a remarkable career. The evening ends with memorable narratives about the evolution of air infiltration operations by Recce operators using (HALO) parachute techniques; as well as close encounters and narrow escapes during reconnaissance, attack and exfiltration from Oshatotwa at the dawn of the “Bush War”. You don't want to miss this (!) It promises to be an unforgettable evening of storytelling, dining, socializing and mingling.
