

LEGISLATION

In terms of the Disaster Management Act, 2002, private security as a whole is now classified as essential services during the lockdown period. During this period Kasselmann Security Services will operate accordingly.

WITH ADDED SAFETY MEASURES, OUR OPERATIONAL SERVICES WILL CONTINUE AS NORMAL

Reaction Officers

- No physical contact with clients. Must maintain a distance of 3 meters from clients.
- We advise that clients eliminate or limit contact with response officers by cancelling false alarms.
- Sanitizers, masks & gloves have been issued to officers for use during site visits and shifts.

Control Room

- There will be no interruptions to alarm signals being received and will be reacted on swiftly.
- We will continue to restrict access to our control room to ensure staff's well-being.

Intelligence

- Dedicated vehicles will respond to clients following the above stipulated protocol for response officers.
- Our tactical teams will continue to operate, accessing crime intelligence to be on the look out for suspicious activity.

General Protocol

- Our admin employees will continue to work as normal.
- Contact with our clients will be limited.
